From a careful count taken by the ushers at the doors the actual number of worshippers wis somewhat in excess of 9,400. The great majority of these attended the Service of the Passion, which continued from noon to 3 P. M. The Rev. Dr. irving P. Johnson, Seabury Divinity School, Faribault, Minn, was in charge of the service and preached. A large part of the congregation consisted of downtown business men, many of whom remained for iess than an hour. There seemed to be a continuous stream of persons passing in and out of the church throughout the three hours. The attendance at all the chapels of Trinity parish, extending from Governorm of Stand to One Hundred and Fiftynorm in the street, was reported unusually
